PHILIPP SCHULZE

Chief Executive Officer (COO), DOCUFY GmbH

Philipp Schulze has been working at DOCUFY GmbH since 2010. With his background in business informatics, he has already been able to contribute his experience to numerous projects as a developer, project manager, and consultant. In 2015, he became part of the management team as Head of Solutions and has since then been responsible for the project customer business with over 50 customers - from startups to global industrial groups. As Chief Operating Officer (COO), he has been bundling all matters relating to our customers since May 2022 - from the sales process to project development and support. In his position, he consistently pursues his clear mission: to inspire employees and customers with the software solutions of DOCUFY GmbH.
